When will Vimly stop accepting contributions?

Vimly will stop accepting contributions on March 31, 2026. Beginning April 1, 2026, all contributions must be submitted through BPA's new online employer portal or via mail.

Will the employer process for reporting contributions change?

Yes, you will be required to report contributions through the BPA PORAC Employer Portal. Employer portal guide will be made available upon registering for one of three webinars below.

How do employers get access to the new BPA PORAC Employer Portal?

Registering for one of the live training webinars provides BPA with the necessary information to set up your Employer Portal login. After attending a session, employers will receive a follow-up email with login instructions. A recording will be available if you cannot attend live, but you are still required to register for a webinar for BPA to create your employer portal account.

- Register for the Employer Webinar on Thursday, March 12, 2026, at 11:00 AM PT
- Register for the Employer Webinar on Wednesday, March 18, 2026, at 9:00 AM PT
- Register for the Employer Webinar on Tuesday, April 7, 2026, at 2:00 PM PT

What is the security level on the BPA PORAC Employer Portal?

The Employer Portal is secured using industry-standard encryption protocols and requires two-factor authentication (2FA) for every session, ensuring strong access control and regulatory compliance. Please ensure that the email and phone number you provide are current when registering for the webinar.
